

Pajamas and Praise

Earlier this year, Mend received a generous donation from a clothing co. They sent us multiple boxes of Mommy and Me clothing, pajamas, and sundresses for our boutique. She didn't know at the time how this would have a huge impact on many of our clients. Mend now had an incredible opportunity to reach out to past clients and follow up with them, by telling them about a free clothing gift.

Danielle* was already a mother to two children and was unexpectedly pregnant with her third. She had undergone relationship struggles recently and was feeling lonely and overwhelmed. At her appointments with Mend, Danielle said she was planning for an abortion. She became teary-eyed when she talked about it but felt that it was her only option. Shortly after, she stopped responding to text messages from Mend, and this seemed to finalize that she had chosen abortion.

Months later, we used the new donation as a reason to reach out to Danielle. We were thrilled when she responded expressing her excitement and interest. She announced that she had chosen to parent and was a month away from her due date! Additionally, she was ready to enroll in our education program, and wanted to continue a relationship with Mend. This was an answered prayer and an exciting surprise to everyone at Mend. Thanks to a business owner who gave generously, we were able to give back to our clients and receive exciting news about how God worked in a woman's decision to give life!
